Welcome Address
Swami Nityarupananda
Secretary

Hon'ble Mr. Chairman and Respected Members,

On behalf of the Governing Body of Ramakrishna Vivekananda Mission Society and also on my personal behalf, I welcome all of you most cordially to the 42nd Annual General Meeting of the Mission Society, being hold here today at the holy temple of Sri Sri Ramakrishna.

I pray my heart-felt and most deferential respect to Sri Sri Thakur-Ma and Swamiji and invite you to please do the same for the divine blessings which they are ceaselessly showering on the Mission and each of us associated with the Mission, I also pray from the core of my heart to Swami Nityanandaji Maharaj, the father figure and the founder of the Mission, who, though no longer in his earthly embodiment any more, continues to be an eternal source of Inspiration to all of us.

It is my pleasure to bring it to your kind notice that the Mission has resolutely been following the motto “Puja to the living God” all along and the year under consideration is no exception. Our philosophy remains service to the humanity in general but particularly to the disadvantaged and the marginalized sections of our society, irrespective of caste, creed and religion. We have continued to try harder and harder to translate our philosophy in action, by expanding our organizational network wherever possible, by increasing the number of beneficiaries to the extent our resources permit and by taking up new projects that serve the commoners. I am happy to report that we, in this Mission, are working as a team, the members of which are in a loving and respectful relation with each other. The synergy this factor has been producing is taking the Mission from strength to strength.

I am submitting below the annual report of this Mission, highlighting in the same some of the important activities, events and accomplishments in the year under review, and needless to add, the audited accounts of the Mission Society for the financial year 2017-18 as approved by the Governing Body.

You will find a number of annexes to this report and you will possibly also notice that some of them are not directly related to the text of the report. An explanation of the latter is perhaps in order. For example, there are three short sketches of the lives of Sri Sri Thakur, Sri Sri Ma and Swamiji. There are also some experts from the memorandum of Association of the Mission, that lay down a few of the objects of the Mission. We wish to remind ourselves continuously of the eternal sources of our inspiration and the goals we must ceaselessly strive to achieve. These are the reasons for putting them in the annual report. Other annexes are either meant to provide various information about the Mission or elucidate points given in the text.

8) Highlights of Important Events

i) Programme on Sri Sri Geeta

On 15th April, 2017, our Mission organized a cultural programme in the auditorium of Sukanta Sadan near Barrackpore Railway Station. At the outset, the assembled monks lit up the sacred lamp and then inaugurated the programme by chanting the 'Vedic Peace Mantra'. The main attraction of the programme was recitation of some of the selected 'Slokas' of 'Geeta' by the students, both boys and girls, of our educational institutions. Actually the event was a competition in which the students were to recite the 'Slokas'. The usefulness of 'Geeta Path' as also the technique of chanting the 'Slokas' correctly were explained before the commencement of the recitation competition by Swami Girijananda Maharaj, Swami Nityarupananda Maharaj and Swami Tatjjananda Maharaj. The recitation of the 'Slokas' by the students was so good that the audience was enthralled and practically mesmerized.

In another part of the programme the students of our Purulia centre performed an excellent dance recital and Barrackpore hostel boarders staged a drama on 'Swamiji's Bharat Prem'. Everyone enjoyed this programme immensely. That apart it was a bold stride of our Mission to propagate the thoughts of 'Geeta'.

On 29th April, 2017 a residential building was inaugurated to house 50 destitute and orphan local children. The Mission had a very friendly partner in C.D. Foundation in this venture. The unique feature of this programme was that this was a show of the differently abled girls, mostly deaf, dumb and blind – of our Suryapur centre. Their dance recital and rendering of vocal songs simply charmed everybody in the audience. A large number of distinguished persons attended the functions, but the one held at Azad Bhawan deserves special mention because the same was graced by the presence of the Ambassadors of Peru, Hungary, Venezuela, China and Bangla Desh. The inauguration ceremony started at the crack of dawn with performance of ‘Arati’ of the idol of Sri Sri Thakur. A special “puja” and “home” (i.e. oblation of fire) were performed thereafter. Swami Nityarupanandaji Maharaj the Secretary of this Mission drew attention of the distinguished guests who attended the inauguration ceremony, to this rather unusual feature of the history of the auditorium, in his welcome speech. He informed that the Ministry of Culture, Government of India was kind enough to give a grant of Rs. 1 crore to the Mission towards meeting part of the cost. There were also many other corporate and individual donors without whose munificence the project would not have fructified. The Mission, incidentally, has, till date, spent about of Rs. 5 crores from its own coffer to have the auditorium built and appropriately furnished. While acknowledging with utmost gratefulness the stupendous amount of help the Mission received from Hon'ble Pranab Kumar Mukherjee in translating the project of building the auditorium into reality, the Secretary of the Mission simultaneously paid his heartfelt obeisance to late Swami Nityananda Maharaj, the then Secretary, who not only dreamt of it initially, but breathed life into it and gave thrust to it in a unique manner.

RAMAKRISHNA VIVEKANANDA MISSION

Significance of the Emblem

The Mission bears the Holy names of the Great Master, Sri Sri Ramakrishna and his disciple & “Alterego” Swami Vivekananda. The Emblem is, therefore formed with their pictures.

Words “মামনুষ্মর যুধ্যত” under the picture of the Great Master are from Srimat Bhagabat Geeta in which Lord Krishna urges Arjuna to remember him constantly and also to work (fight).

Said Sri Ramakrishna, “God has given you two hands, work for your family with one hand and worship the Lord with the other through Jnana, Karma, Bhakti and/or Yoga as may be expedient to you, so that you may reach God when the life in this world is over.”

Words “SERVE GOD IN MAN” under the picture of Swami Vivekananda indicates briefly the whole philosophy of Swami Vivekananda, which, in his language, is called practical Vedanta or Vedanta philosophy in practice.

How you can help the Mission

1. With about one third of the population of our country living below the poverty line, there is great need for accommodation, education & training of destitute children, women-in-distress and physically handicapped. Our Welfare Homes taking care of such children including deaf & dumb and blind girls and women require immediate expansion. There is also tremendous demand for setting up of more centres for Welfare of Street Children in the city of Kolkata. The Homes of old aged people are also facing great pressure to increase their capacity. Because of huge deficit accumulated over the years the Mission solicits help for successful implementation of the charitable programmes indicated above.
2. Anyone can sponsor the maintenance, education and training of a destitute boy or girl paying Rs. 1500/- per month.
3. Subscription can be paid on a monthly basis.
4. Contribution in kind such as food-stuff, clothing, sports goods, furniture, books, stationeries, cooking utensils and electric fans etc. are welcome.

Gifts in kind such as land, building, machinery and any other equipments for Vocational Training of boys and girls and for training of small and marginal farmers in modern agricultural technology are also gratefully accepted.

5. For proper maintenance and development of Health Service Centre at village Suryapur, Dist. North 24 Parganas (Barrackpore) with arrangements for treatment of leprosy, hypertension, diabetes and other chronic diseases, generous assistance is required.
6. Donations can be made for the purpose of commemorating a departed soul and also for celebrating the birthday of an individual every year by making one time Fixed Deposit of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) per head. Donations to the Mission are exempted from payment of income tax under section 80G of Income Tax Act. Under section 35CCA of the said Act, donations for Rural Development projects of the Mission are however, fully exempted from payment of Income Tax.

The Mission maintains, entirely free of cost, poor children who have lost both parents. Anyone having knowledge about such children may kindly contact the Headquarters at 7, Riverside Road, Barrackpore. Phone :2592 0547

A brief write-up about the great saints, Sri Ramakrishna Paramhansa Deva, his Holy consort, Sri Saradamoni Devi & his chief disciple, Swami Vivekananda.

Sri Ramakrishna Paramhansa Deva (1836-1886)

Sri Ramakrishna was born of poor parents at village Kamarpukur in the district of Hooghly of West Bengal. His earlier name was Sri Gadadhar Chattopadhyay. Even in his very childhood, Gadadhar gave on many occasions, a clear evidence of divine inspiration and power through his thoughts and actions. While very young, he felt a keen urge to know if the Divine power of God manifests itself through everything on earth, particularly through the idols or images the Hindus generally worship.

At the age of seventeen, he was sent to his eldest brother at Kolkata where the latter conducted a Sanskrit academy. On being advised to join studies in keeping with the tradition of the Bramhins, he replied, “Brother, what shall I do with a mere bread winning education? I would rather acquire that wisdom which will illuminate my heart and in getting which, one is satisfied forever.” Thereafter he was engaged as a priest in the Holy temple of Goddess Kali on the bank of the Ganges at Dakshineswar, 8 kilometres off towards the north of Kolkata, a city which was then full of western thoughts and more Europeanized than any other city in India. There he practiced in extreme austerity while performing daily worship in the temple of Kali and ultimately realized that God is the goal of human life and God is the only friend of all beings at all times and under all circumstances. Thereupon he wanted to know the Truth in other religions.

Towards the end of 1866, he got formally initiated into Islam. As a non-Hindu, he began to reside outside the precincts of the temple and started dressing and behaving like a devout Muslim reciting the namaz regularly. In 1874, i.e. after about 8 years, he practiced Christianity imbibing all the teachings of Christ. Thus he tried all beliefs and traversed all different ways one by one. He realized that all the religions are equally true and there are different ways of getting to the truth of existence and everyone has the right to approach God in his or her own way. He said, “A lake has several ghats. At one, the Hindus take water in pitchers and call it “jal”; at another, the Mussalmans take water in leather bags and call it “pani”. At the third, the Christians call it “water”. Can we imagine that it is not “jal”, but only “pani” or “water”? How ridiculous! The substance is one under different names, and everyone is seeking the same substance; only climate, temperament, and name create differences. Let each man follow his own path. If he sincerely and ardently wishes to know God, peace be unto him! He will surely realize Him.’

He expressed in very simple words, with the aid of stories and parables, the great truths he had realized. He was totally free of any dogma and bigotry and emphasized that there could be no claim to monopoly over spiritual matters. Naturally, great scholars and numerous spiritual aspirants, belonging to different sects, with genuine desire for god – realization, were attracted by his wonderful teachings. He did not claim any originality. But with great humility he could keep his audience spellbound for hours together with lucid talks and unfathomable wisdom. During the British rule, education was arranged in such a manner as to turn out men who would be English in taste and intellectual outlook. The shaken Hindu social culture with its spiritual foundation was at a critical juncture when the life and message of Sri Ramakrishna brought fresh strength into the Hindu Society. In fact, from the quiet abode at Dakshineswar he breathed life into Hinduism and ushered in an era of Hindu renaissance.

The great contribution of Sri Ramakrishna to the modern world is the harmony of religions. He preached equal regard for all faiths – “Sarvadharmasadbhava.” He was the embodiment of renunciation and example of the complete conquest of lust and of desire for money. By his life Sri Ramakrishna teaches us that pride and power, wealth and glory, are nothing in comparison with the power of spirit. In fact, he was one of those rare beings, in whom the flame of spiritual life burnt so brightly that all who came near were able to share the illumination. Never before mankind got such a unique personality with synthesis of Jnana, Yoga, Bhakti and Karma.

Sri Saradamoni Devi (1853-1920)

Three miles from Kamarpukur is the village Joyrambati, in the district of Bankura, where Saradamoni Mukherjee was born. At the age of 23, Sri Ramakrishna married Sarada, 5 years old. On being questioned by Sri Ramakrishna, Sarada, on her first visit to Dakshineswar at the age of 19, replied without any reservation that she was not interested in a worldly life and would help him in his pursuit of God. A few days, thereafter, while massaging her husband's feet, Sarada wanted to know what he thought about her. In reply Ramakrishna said, "The divine Mother who is worshipped in the temple is verily the mother who has given birth to this body and who is now putting up in the music tower, and again it is she who is massaging my feet at the present moment, verily, I look upon you as a representation of the blissful Mother in human flesh."

Such behaviour of a husband towards his wife is not recorded anywhere in the history of mankind where the husband saw the divine mother in his wife and yet acted like a husband by allowing her to massage his feet. Thus the Holy couple lived together in a unique bond of love and devotion in the heights of God consciousness without a trace of worldliness. After her husband's demise, she could not wear the widow's garb, as she distinctly felt his continued presence with her and was the source of strength and inspiration in establishing and running the twin great organizations, Ramakrishna Math and Ramakrishna Mission at Belur in the district of Howrah (West Bengal). Gradually she became the Mother with great love and compassion for all creatures.

Swami Vivekananda (1863-1902)

Swami Vivekananda was born as Narendra Nath Dutta in a liberal and well-to-do family of Kolkata. As a boy, he used to spend long hours in a meditative pose and later on, had radical & modern thoughts. As a true rationalist he rebelled against the idea of accepting anything of faith. He desired to satisfy himself with reasons and evidences. No preaching or sermons were acceptable to him straightway. He met many religious leaders but none could convince him about the existence of God. He had become restless in search of truth when he came in contact with Sri Ramakrishna. Previously he did not believe that the individual and the supreme are identical but Sri Ramakrishna's teachings and careful handling made him realize the all pervasiveness of the 'Spirit.' Thus at the feet of a simple and almost illiterate Ramakrishna, the most intellectual humbled himself.

Swami Vivekananda became highly famous after his historic speech at the Parliament of Religions at Chicago in America in the year 1893. Through him the western world was enriched with a proper idea about the imperishable wealth of spiritual and cultural treasures of India. It is also truly held that the said Parliament is remembered because of Swami Vivekananda. The reasons of his universal popularity is to be traced to the fact that he tried to raise the dignity of man to the highest level and dedicated himself with great devotion to the service of the suffering humanity. His personality bled at the sight of human suffering. He declared that service to the poor, the illiterate, the ignorant; the afflicted is the highest religion. God is present in every 'jiva' and there is no other God besides that. The dignity of man was raised above everything else and he was emphatic on the point that one can find peace and prosperity by serving the suffering humanity more easily than offering tons of fruits and flowers at the holy altar of God. The example he gave was very simple. In our daily life, he said, we find a father is naturally happy when his children are well taken care of. How can the Supreme Father be happy when tons of flowers and fruits are offered to Him in the temple but His children outside are starving or suffering from ailments? His mission was both national and international. Like Bhagiratha, he brought down the stream of spirituality from the height of Ramakrishna's life for the benefit of the mankind.

As a great lover of humanity, this patriot Saint of Modern India upheld the glory of India's ancient heritage and stressed upon the need for formulating all national programmes on the basis of spirituality. His "Lectures from Colombo to Almora" was the fountain-head of national inspiration to hundreds of freedom fighters of the country. He lived a short life of thirty nine years of which about a decade was spent in intensive social work including establishment of the great Math in the name of his Master at Belur (Howrah). Yet he left for posterity his four classics –

Janna Yoga, Bhakti Yoga, Karma Yoga and Raja Yoga, all of which are outstanding treatises on Hindu philosophy.

It has been said that if Ramakrishna was the thought – Swami Vivekananda was the expression. Both the Master and the disciple revealed the spirit of Hinduism at its best and highest espousing at the same time that philosophy and not mythology and rituals was the very soul of every religion. It is because of mistaken attitude towards religion that different communities could not tolerate each other. The cardinal principle of Ramakrishna Movement is “Atmana mokshartham jagatddhitayachaa (the liberation of the self and the welfare of the world)”. Swami Vivekananda showed how renunciation can go hand in hand with intense activity for the sake of others.

A background note on Ramakrishna Vivekananda Mission and Vivekananda Math

More than 150 years have passed since Swami Vivekananda, the great disciple of Sri Sri Ramakrishna left this mortal world. The thoughts and ideas, he has left behind, have attracted the attention and caught the imagination of people all over the world. The universal popularity which he enjoyed during his life is explained by the fact that he was a lover of man above anything else, a lover of the poor and the pariahs of our country. It is through service to those poor people that he wanted us to worship God first and then to go to a temple or a church. This, he thought would solve many of our basic problems like those of food, education, shelter etc. and also give us a great impetus in our religious pursuits. He had the utmost faith in the ability and efficiency of Indian youths and he wanted only one thousand young people to be dedicated and scarified at the Holy altar of our nation, our motherland, India, with a view to building up the nation and re-generating its vitality in all directions, particularly in the spiritual field not only for their own good but for the good of other nations as well. His dream of future India has not come true as yet. Hence the malady in all sphere of our society, spiritual as well as mundane.

The only God that Vivekananda wanted us to worship first is the Human Soul in the Human Body i.e. “WORSHIP SHIVA IN JIVA” before pursuing any other religious rites. But unfortunately, we have failed to follow his instructions. The Stone-God is still being fed abundantly in temples while the living Gods are dying of starvation on the street. Instead of worshipping Gods, Vivekananda meditated upon, we have made Vivekananda a God, additional to the existing ones and worship him well enough in his statues and temples. The poor and the pariahs have remained where they were before; they are still living in darkness and distress, in hunger and thirst, in slums and huts. We have only learnt how to spread about Vivekananda's teachings from the press and platform, through Radio and Televisions, without spending even an ounce of our energy or a penny from our earnings for the people for whom Vivekananda lived and died.

It is in this context that the Ramakrishna Vivekananda Mission came into being at the initiative of a band of young Sannyasis and Brahmacharis, devotees dedicated to the welfare of the poorest of the poor people of this country, with a view to realizing the Highest Truth in life through selfless service to the suffering humanity irrespective of caste, creed, religion and place of birth. The Mission came into existence on the 25th October, 1976, in a dilapidated building on the bank of the holy river Ganga at 7, Riverside Road, Barrackpore, district North 24 Parganas, West Bengal, India. It was registered as a society with effect from 1st November, 1976, under the West Bengal Societies Registration Act, 1961 and its actual work started from 1st January, 1977, with only 20 tribal boys from the districts of Birbhum and Bankura, accommodated in the new Welfare Home. Simultaneously a school was started on the grass with a fencing of hessian cloth, as dedication, and not fund, was the only resource available to the Mission.

Vivekananda Math was established in 1977, at 7, Riverside Road, Barrackpore and registered as a Trust in 1980, with a view to providing a platform for the truth-seeker to lead a life in conformity with the teachings of Sri Sri Ramakrishna. The Math prepares monastic workers in accordance with the guidelines laid down by Swami Vivekananda and arranges initiation (Diksha) of devotees. It is a place for preparing oneself in spiritual discipline while performing Missionary activities, in the centres set up and administered by Ramakrishna Vivekananda Mission and Vivekananda Math. In fact, the Math functions on the twin ideals of renunciation and service as emphasized by Swami Vivekananda.

The Trustees of the Math organize festivals on the occasions of birth days of Sri Ramakrishna, Sri Ma Sarada Devi, Swami Vivekananda and other direct disciples of Sri Ramakrishna and Lord Buddha, Janmastami, X-mas, Durga Puja, Laxmi Puja, Kali Puja, Viswakarma Puja and Saraswati Puja etc. Every Ekadashi day Ramnama Kirtan is also arranged. At all temples at different Mission and Math centres daily prayer and worship is a must.

Apart from the temple of Sri Sri Ramakrishna at Barrackpore, the proudest possession of Vivekananda Math is the Naranarayan Mandir at Joyrambati. Just as a “Kumari” is worshipped during the Durga Puja, a boy not exceeding the age of 8 years is worshipped daily at the ‘Naranarayan Mandir’. Any devotee is welcome to perform this puja at a cost as desired by him. This sort of non-traditional puja which serves a poor boy and brings joy to him along with some material benefit, is sure to enrich the devotee spiritually. In fact, this is meant to give a practical shape of Swami Vivekananda’s idea of God Worship in Man (Shiva in Jiva). Said Swamiji, “If in this world one can bring a little joy and peace even for a day into the heart of a single person that much alone is true: all else is mere moonshine”.

Ramakrishna Vivekananda Mission is a registered society and Vivekananda Math is a registered Trust. The respective ownership, management and control of the Mission and the Math have been entirely vested with the Governing Body of the former and the Board of Trustees of the latter. The Governing Body of the Mission consists of both monastic and non-monastic members but the Trustees of the Vivekananda Math are all monastic members. Both organizations have their headquarters at Barrackpore and people in general, link the name of the Mission with all activities of the Math as well. Both the Mission and the Math have separate funds with separate accounts. In addition to donations from individuals and non-official organizations, the Mission receives financial assistance from the Government. The accounts of the Mission are annually audited by auditors selected in the Annual General Meeting of the Mission Society. The Math fund, however, depends on donations mainly from disciples and non-official sources.

In this connection it is stated that the Ramakrishna Vivekananda Mission and the Vivekananda Math at Barrackpore and their branch centres are legally and constitutionally separate from the great organizations viz. Ramakrishna Math and Ramakrishna Mission at Belur (Howrah) and Sarada Math and Ramakrishna Sarada Mission at Dakshineswar (North 24 Parganas) and their branches throughout the country and abroad.
